DETAILED ACTION

1. This Office Action is directed towards the Applicant's response filed 8-25-09.
Claims 1-12 are pending and have been examined.

Response to Arguments

2. Applicant's arguments with respect to the rejections of the claims under 35 USC 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by Burazerovic et al., International Application Number PCT/IB2003/005965, have been fully considered and are persuasive.
Therefore, the rejections have been withdrawn.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

3. 35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

4. Claims 1-8 and 12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter.

Independent claims 1 and 12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 based on Supreme Court precedent and recent Federal Circuit decisions, a 35 U.S.C § 101 process must (1) be tied to a particular machine or (2) transform underlying subject matter (such as an article or materials) to a different state or thing. In re Bilski et al, 88

Art Unit: 2437

USPQ 2d 1385 CAFC (2008); Diamond v. Diehr, 450 U.S. 175, 184 (1981); Parker v. Flook, 437 U.S. 584, 588 n.9 (1978); Gottschalk v. Benson, 409 U.S. 63, 70 (1972); Cochrane v. Deener, 94 U.S. 780,787-88 (1876). An example of a method claim that would not qualify as a statutory process would be a claim that recited purely mental steps. Thus, to qualify as a § 101 statutory process, the claim should positively recite the particular machine to which it is tied, for example by identifying the apparatus that accomplishes the method steps, or positively recite the subject matter that is being transformed, for example by identifying the material that is being changed to a different state. Here, the applicant's method steps are not tied to a particular machine and do not perform a transformation. Thus, the claims are non-statutory. The mere recitation of the machine in the preamble with an absence of a machine in the body of the claim fails to make the claim statutory under 35 USC 101. Note the Board of Patent Appeals Informative Opinion Ex parte Langemyer et al.

Claims 2-8 are dependent on claim 1 and do not cure its deficiency. Therefore, they are rejected on the same basis as claim 1.

*Claims 1-8 are newly rejected under 35 USC Sec. 101 1st paragraph. Therefore, since these rejections were not necessitated by the Applicant's amendment, this Action is not made final.

Allowable Subject Matter

- 5, Claims 9-11 are allowed.
6. Claims 1-8 and 12 would be allowable if amended to overcome the rejection under 35 USC Sec. 101.
